

THE PATRICIA AND ALAN LEBOW

SHAKESPEARE SUMMER INTENSIVE

SPONSORED BY KIDS' DREAMS, INC.

July 1-5, 9am-5pm • Kravis Center Cohen Pavilion

The program

- Over this 5-day program, students in the Acting track will arrive with a memorized sonnet and monologue and receive one-on-one instruction from industry professionals in the areas of Acting, Voice & Speech, Movement/Stage Combat, and Verse & Text.
- The Design track will focus on the development of costume, properties, and scenic design in the world of Shakespeare.
- The Intensive will culminate in a student performance/exhibition on Friday, July 5, open to friends and families. Includes a post-intensive field trip to see the Palm Beach Shakespeare Festival's production of KING LEAR on Thursday, July 11 at 8pm.
- For high school students ages 15-18
- $500 enrollment fee
- Full need-based scholarships available (must qualify for the Federal Free/Reduced Lunch Program and be nominated by a teacher). Send nominations via email to anello@kravis.org

Space is limited!
Deadline to register is 5/30/24.
To register, scan the QR Code or click HERE!

Kravis Center for the Performing Arts
701 Okeechobee Blvd, West Palm Beach, FL

